EUROSIS Paper Code Nr:_____

I, hereby, confirm, to have read and understood the stipulations of the EUROSIS authorkit agreement and acknowledge that in order for my paper to be printed in the EUROSIS conference Proceedings my paper will have to be prepared in the manner in which it was requested according to the EUROSIS authorkit. Furthermore, I will have to make payment (*), by the date stipulated in the aforementioned authorkit, of the full author registration. I agree that in the case of my inability to attend the conference I can have my paper presented by a co-author or co-worker at no extra charge. In the case that I cannot find a volunteer to present my paper I cannot obtain a refund unless I indicated such a situation to EUROSIS before the author registration deadline.

If these two provisions are not met EUROSIS cannot publish my paper.

In return for my payment EUROSIS will publish my paper in the Conference Proceedings, advertise my presentation in the Conference preliminary programme, final programme on internet, and provide me with all amenities related to being a conference participant as stipulated in all conference literature.

If through circumstances you are unable to attend the conference, a copy of the Proceedings will be sent to you at an EXTRA* cost of €60 after the conference plus 20% shipping costs. This has to be prepaid. (*on top of your registration fee)
